

PASS THE PIGS

INSTRUCTIONS

A Tale of Two Piggies

Tired of being used as dice in the ancient game of Pig Hurling (and covered in bruises in awkward places), the two pigs, Jack and Hugh Pigfellow decided to craft two small wooden piglets to be used instead of them.

Night after night they carved the miniature pigs in their own image. Finally, whilst pork scratching a score-board on an old piece of fence posting, Hugh shouted, "Oink, Pass the Pigs, Jack!", and so the first version was invented.

The game was a phenomenal success with the people of Pignalonia. Hugh and Jack rolled in their pens with glee at their astute business sense. The success and profits earned them critical acclaim and saved them a fortune at the pig hospital (not having to bandage their trotters after an unfortunate throw by an overzealous Pignalonian farmer)! We hope you enjoy Hugh and Jack's game, and play it in memory of them - and their bruises!

To throw the pigs and score as many points in one turn as you can. The first player to score 100 points is the winner.

Contents

1 case, 2 pigs, 1 score-pad, 2 pencils.

PIGGERICK

There once was a pig called Delilah,
Who wanted to fly in a glider.
She finally had a go,
But hated it so,
She jumped out and landed a sider!
(Sider 1 point)

1. Remove the cover of the score-pad. This is to be used as a quick reference score chart during play.

2. One player is appointed the "swineherd" and is in charge of marking the individual scores onto the score-pad.

3. Choose a player to go first. On your turn, toss both pigs simultaneously into the air. How did they land?

opposite sides. Lose all pig points for that turn. (Eg: One lying dot side up, the other unmarked side up.)

One pig lands on its back, trotters in the air. (The other pig is a Sider!)

TROTTER

5 points

One pig lands on all four trotters. (The other pig is a Sider!)

DOUBLE RAZORBACK

20 points
Both pigs land trotters up!

SIDER

1 point

Both pigs land on their same sides. (Eg: Both lying dot side up, or unmarked side up.)

DOUBLE TROTTER

20 points

Both pigs land in the trotter position.

SNOUTER

10 points

A snouty pig lands on its snout and two front trotters. (The other pig is a Sider!)

SNOOTER

Two snouters are better than one!

acrobatic pigs!
Eg: Trotter +
Snouter = 15 points

LEANING JOWLER

15 points

One pig lands jowl to the ground supported by an ear and a front trotter. (The other pig is a Sider!)

OINKER

Two pigs touching in any position - Lose all pig points up to this throw.
Pass the pigs to the next player.

DOUBLE LEANING OWLER

60 points

Two curly tails in the air in the leaning jowler position!

PIGGY BACK

A totally undignified position for pigs. You are out of the game!

Once you have noted the score for your throw you must decide whether to be a "Pig-head" and continue for more points, or to quit while you're ahead. Remember, if you go for more points you take the chance of throwing a "Pig Out" and losing all your points. Will the pigs be lucky for you?

You can take as many turns as you dare until either:

1. You decide to stop and record your total score for that turn.
2. You throw a "Pig Out" and score "0" for that round.
3. You throw a "Oinker" and lose all your points accumulated in the game so far.

swineherd records your score and you pass the pigs to the next player.

PIGGERICK

There was a little pig scout,
A fine little piglet, no doubt!
He did his good deeds,
Was paid in corn seeds,
Then spent most of his time on his snout!
(Snouter 10 points)

Winning the Game

The first player to score 100 points wins the game!

Game Version II - For Pig Fanatics

Play the game in the same way as described earlier. When players have scored 20 points or more they may choose to "Hog Call".

The "Hog Caller" predicts what position the pigs will land in.

Note: Hog Calls can only be made by players who are not throwing the pigs!

To make a Hog Call, first you must shout "Sooe", before the pigs are thrown by another player. The first player to shout is the one to Hog Call for this round.

If you Hog Call correctly:

Earn double the number of points scored for that throw. At the same time the throwing player subtracts double the points from his total. (A player can never go below zero.)

If you make a bad Hog Call:

You subtract double the number of points scored. This time the throwing player earns double the points.

The player throwing the pigs retains possession until either he decides to stop or he throws a Pig Out or Oinker, as in the basic rules.

PIGGERICK

There was a pig painter called Carlotta,
Who created marvellous designs in her jotter.
She spent all her day,
Painting "Pigs Posed in Hay!"
But her most famous piece was "The Trotter"
(Trotter 5 points)
