to the scholar on his left, and so on around, until it comes to the teacher, who reads the answer from the book.

- 5.—If any scholar answers the question, he is entitled to the card, and lays it aside for game.
- 6.—The teacher then asks the next, or second, scholar on the left, to turn up a card, which is read and disposed of in the same way as the previous one.
- 7.—Each scholar must, in turn, be given a chance to answer all questions passed around, before they are returned to the teacher.
- 8.—As soon as a question is answered, the next player on the left of the one who last played, must turn up a card, and read its question.
- 9.—No scholar can answer a question out of turn. If he does so, the card will be won by the scholar who at that moment held it.
- 10.—When all the cards have been used, the scholar who has answered the greatest number of questions (which is shown by the cards held) wins the game.
