

RACE FOR THE NORTH POLE

Each player has a counter which is to represent an explorer. The players spin the teetotum in turn and are governed in the moves by the number coming uppermost. If a spin of the teetotum would advance a counter to a space occupied by another counter, the turn is lost. The player first reaching space 60, which represents the North Pole, wins the game.

MILTON BRADLEY CO.,

SPRINGFIELD, MASS.

